

Our Week at a Glance

Dear Parents,

We wrapped up our Community Helpers Unit this week focussing on police officers and chefs. Thank you to Officer Karen and Officer Natalie for coming into our Monday afternoon 4 year old class to discuss their jobs as police officers!!

Thank you to the families who supplied our tummies with tasty snacks this week!!

<h2>Songs/Rhymes</h2>	Tommy thumb Stop, look and listen I am police officer 4 hugs a day Puddles Fish alive I am a pizza Milkshake song People in our town This is the way.....when we (cook/bake)
<h2>Books</h2>	I Want To Be A Police Officer- by Dan Liebman Froggy Rides A Bike – by Jonathon London Chefs And What They Do – by Liesbet Slegers I Want To Be A Chef – by Dan Liebman Froggy Goes To A Restaurant – by Jonathon London
<h2>Art Activities</h2>	Cutting out and making a stop sign Chef hats Bingo dauber sheets (optional center)
<h2>Skills</h2>	Language – sharing, reviewing the various community helpers,, discussing the job and tools for a police officer, discussing the job and tools for a chef, HWWT play dough letter making Math – calendar, counting, number identification, one to one correspondence, “Would you like to be a police officer?” yes/no graph, counting out cubes into numbered containers, fruit and vegetable sorting, “Would you like to be a chef?” yes/no graph, favorite community helper

	Fine Motor – hot wheels, big trucks, play dough, water table (basters and eye droppers), doll house, marble tower, Mr. Potato Head, puzzles, magnetic dolls, letter making, construction vehicles, train set, little people toys, foam building blocks, fruit and vegetable “fishing”, dauber coloring sheets, squigz Gross Motor – movement songs, foam building blocks, acting out various community helpers Sensory – water table, play dough, oats box
Highlights	Bakery center – drama Marble towers Visit from police officers (M afternoon class)